

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

Department of Classics

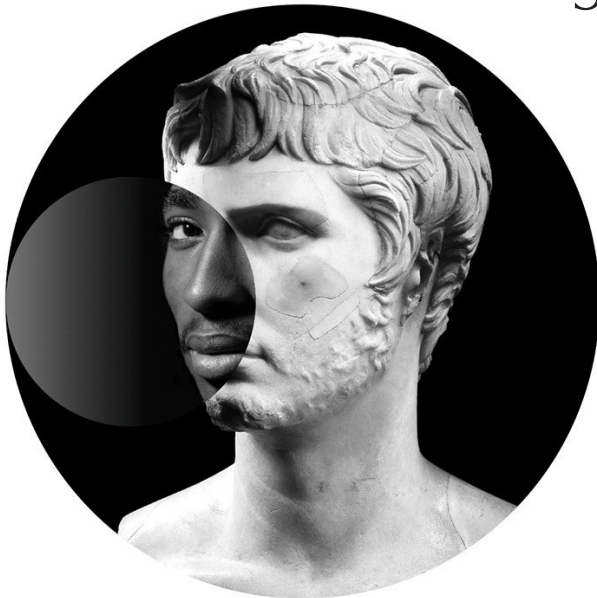

CLASSICS BEYOND WHITENESS PRESENTS

'Race' in Context:
On Writing an Archaeological
History of Ethnicity in Imperial Rome

SINCLAIR W. BELL

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9TH

3:30PM

Sinclair W. Bell is Professor of Art History at Northern Illinois University, and Editor of the Memoirs of the American Academy in Rome. He studied Classical languages and archaeology at Wake Forest, Oxford, Edinburgh, and Cologne universities. He is an art historian and field archaeologist, with particular interests in Etruscology, Roman provincial archaeology, and the visualization of otherness in the Roman Empire.

Offered as part of the National Scholar Strike and Teach In